Shoe Mavens and Shopaholics

These shoes are made for walking, and dancing, and just plain strutting. This is the shoe department. That's right. Just shoes and their accessories. A shoe maven's dream come true!

We gals who love shoes understand that there is just something about the way a perfect pair of shoes completes an outfit that makes them absolutely essential. Of course, we remember our favorite pairs and what we were wearing on certain special occasions. For instance...

There was the highly anticipated New Year's Eve at Tavern On the Green in New York City with my husband. A true fairytale kind of night. I wore black patent Bruno Magli. Strappy, sexy, 4-inch heels.

But, I digress....

I started to tell you about a new place to find shoes. Actually, it's an auction website – the first of its kind – specifically for shoes and accessories to go with them. What makes this site even better is that you're not limited to buying.

You can post a listing to sell a pair of shoes or arrange a trade with another shoe maven who shares your taste in footwear.

How it works:

If you have a pair of shoes you'd like to sell, create a listing for them and take a picture. Next, post your listing for $1.00. Yep, it's only $1 per listing.

Other cool benefits at no additional cost:

- As many as 8 pictures per listing.
- Your shoes will be relisted automatically if they don't sell right away.
- When the shoes sell, you keep the profits. There are no final value fees or other charges.
- No memberships required to use the site.

There is even an option to set up your own online shoe store for only $15 a month with a discount of 5% on listings!

Arranging a shoe swap is easy to do as well. You create a listing with photo and post it for $1.00. People will respond with a bid which, in this case, would be the shoes that they want to trade.
